

Jim Corbett is the oldest national park in India, has the distinction of being visited by many generations of nature lovers since 1939. With the weather that remains idyllic throughout the year in this part of Uttarakhand, makes it truly an ideal destination for both leisure and adventure. A massive 520 sq kilometres, this includes diverse terrain from the gurgling rivers, to steep hills and of course dense forest host to a wide array of wildlife including Tiger, Elephants, Leopard, Jungle Cat, Nilgai, Sambur etc and over 500 species of resident and migratory birds.

Accommodation: All our rooms in four different categories are clubbed to offer intimate experience of the location, overlooking the Kosi River. Our Tigers Den suits offers exclusivity with bar and dining, a classically designated private swimming pool ensure an un-matched luxurious experience. As the name suggests the Riverfront Rooms are closer to the river within 0 to 50 yards distance. A quaint riverside balcony with access to our pristine yet vast lawns for those wishing to relax on our soft hammocks and ornate benches. The Deluxe Rooms are big winners just for the superb view of the cliffs, extend to exquisite lawns. Classically designed, these rooms have a jungle theme imprinted on your sub-conscious from the moment you set foot in them, while providing all necessary modern convenience for a great stay.

Restaurants: Our signature restaurant “River’s Front” serving dishes that highlights cuisine from India, Chinese and Continental, sourcing many ingredient and inspirations locally. Our star Chefs crafts a combination of buffet style meals, as well as a-la-cart options. Beginning with your welcome drink upon arrival, specialty mocktails and beverages will both refresh and relax you throughout your stay. The Wild Side Alfresco Restaurant is for those guests who like to eat without any frills. An outside grill/ tandoor makes the restaurant an experience in itself, as you eat the kind of delectable food you would want, enjoying the live music underneath the spectacular night sky.

At a Glance: We aim to spoil our guests, despite all there to eat, drink and experience with various guest activities including Safari to Jim Corbett National Park on specially crafted 4x4 vehicles operated by Wildlife department. Other in-house activities includes Spa | Volleyball | Children’s Activity Area | Badminton | Table Tennis | Cricket on the riverbank lawns | exclusive Pool Table room. The Conference Hall is available for those guests who wish to combine business with leisure.

Rooms and Suite's	Units
Standard Rooms	12
Deluxe Rooms	09
Riverfront Rooms	15
Tigers Den Suite	06

